

Just Imagine

Your sales team's diaries are full with meetings from warm qualified leads...

hello
consultants

A TRULY JOINED UP MULTI-CHANNEL APPROACH, PROVEN TO GIVE YOU THE BEST CONVERSION RATES.

You've been targeted.

hello
consultants

and in the same way, we'll target your future clients on your behalf too.

The Method:

- 1. We've targeted you as our ideal client by job title, location, company turnover, employee size & other key information and we'll do this to find your customers too.
- 2. We are going to email you this brochure with a friendly introduction.
- 3. We're going to call you too, which will most likely be on your mobile phone.
- 4. We'll tap you up on LinkedIn, because you're interesting and we'd like to get to know you personally.
- 5. A lovely printed version of this brochure will be posted to you, that way you can read it over a cuppa should you wish.
- 6. We'll arrange a kick-off meeting with you - just as we will for all your potential new clients!

The Expertise:

1. When we detail the ideal client we filter millions of up-to-date clean business contact data.
2. We plan, prepare and produce all supporting marketing collateral for each campaign including brochures and emails.
3. We project manage and execute for each contact we make.
4. We book the meetings for your sales teams.
5. Because the leads are so warm, your sales team will close more business.
